DEPARTMENT OF STATE

[Public Notice No. 2958]

Secretary of State's Advisory Committee on Private International Law; Study Group on International Family Support Enforcement Meeting Notice

There will be a public meeting of the Study Group on International Family Support Enforcement of the Secretary of State's Advisory Committee on Private International Law on Friday, January 29, 1999. The meeting will be held from 9:30 AM to 4:30 PM in Room 1107 of the U.S. Department of State, 2201 C Street, NW, Washington, DC 20520. The purpose of the meeting is to assist the Department of State to prepare the position of the U.S. delegation to a special commission session of the Hague Conference on Private International Law, April 13-16, 1999.

The Hague Conference on Private International Law (of which the United States is a member state) has scheduled the special commission session to review the operation of existing conventions dealing with the establishment, recognition, and enforcement of family support orders, and to explore the desirability of developing over the next four years a new Hague Convention on the enforcement of family support obligations. Such a convention could incorporate and revise certain features of the support enforcement process now included in the 1956 United Nations Convention on the Recovery Abroad of Maintenance, 268 U.N.T.S. 3 (1957); and four Hague conventions dealing with applicable law and recognition orders—1956 Convention sur la loi applicable aux obligations alimentaires envers les
